GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Approving A. B. No. 2, creating Legislative fund.

At 12:05 Assembly adjourned.

ALL SORTS.

—Wizard Oil at Geo. Thaxter's.

—Sheriff Ullrich has appointed ex-Sheriff Crisler as his deputy.

—BORN—To the widow of the late C. H. Wilson, a girl, 5 pounds.

—Mrs. Kennedy came up yesterday from the Bay with her child which had fully recovered.

—Last evening 36 silver bricks from the Con. Virginia and two from Gold Hill went down on the train. The bullion was valued at $135,000 and the result of a ten days run.

—The citizens of Douglas county propose to follow suit with those of Washoe in presenting a testimonial of regard to the ex-District Judge.
It would be a good thing if Ormsby county folks would also testify their respect to a competent Judge in a similar manner.—Tribune.

—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is recommended by physicians of the greatest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic as the most reliable remedy for colds and coughs, and all pulmonary disorders. It affords prompt relief in every case. No family should ever be without it.

—Health is impossible when the blood is impure; thick, and sluggish or when it is thin and impoverished.
Under such conditions, boils, pimples, headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, and one disease after another is developed. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it will make the blood pure, rich, warm, and vitalizing.

—The Consolidated Cattle Growers Association of the United States are urging their friends to write or telegraph members of Congress to do all in their power to secure the passage of the Miller bill for the creation of a commissioner with power to slaughter any animals affected by or exposed to pleuro-pneumonia. It would be well for Nevada people to act in the matter.
The Legislature might do well to pass a resolution instructing our Senators and Representatives to aid in its passage.

Ho! Ho!

Last evening two country ranchers were talking over the Warden-ship fight, when one said:

"I'm for Bell. My brother will be Captain of the Guard if he wins."

"How many Captains of the Guard are there?" asked the other.

"Only one."

"The devil! A man told me yesterday that if I stood in my son would be the man."

The two men looked at each other for a few seconds, and both drew a long whistle.

More Richness.

Governor Stevenson has struck gold ore in the lower tunnel at Galena, near Steamboat. It is 174 feet below the old work. The tunnel is over 1,000 feet long and comes right into the mill. It will all come to the Reno Reduction Works.

IDAHO.

Nevada wants Idaho and most of Idaho wants to come to Nevada.
While the necessary forms of legislation have not been even begun the annexation of Southern Idaho may be regarded as certain, and the citizens of that portion of the Territory will be citizens of a sovereign State, one of the largest in the Union and containing the greatest mineral wealth of any.
Nevada will have her population increased by many thousands, the burden of State government will be lighter on the individual taxpayers, and everybody will be benefited.
To the ceaseless and intelligent energy of Wm. M. Stewart is due the credit. His zeal for the welfare of his State, made possible the realization of the scheme, and his untiring work completed the necessary details. Mindful of the merest trifle, he has left nothing to the accidents of the future, but has prepared everything for an almost immediate accomplishment of the undertaking. Is it strange that such a man should be the choice of the people for United States Senator?
Is it strange that they prefer an able man who points to what he has done and is doing as evidence of what he will do? The people of Nevada want a man who tries and succeeds not one who tries, fails and cries. In the acquisition of Idaho, Nevada will receive a territory larger than some of the Eastern States with almost unlimited possibilities as to development.
But one man is thoroughly prepared to push the matter to a successful conclusion, he is, however, not only prepared but earnest in the cause and the annexation will in itself be a record of efficiency.
The Idaho annexation is alone sufficient to indicate Mr. Stewart as the proper choice of the Legislature. No claims are urged against him except those of angry political disappointment taking the form of abuse without argument, and the time has not yet come when the wide awake people of the sagebrush reward party treachery because it is presumptuous and persistent.— Walker Lake Bulletin.

The Opera House.

Next Thursday evening at the Carson Opera House the amusement seekers of Carson will be given a rare treat. They will witness Miss Celia Alsberg and Mr.
Lewis Morrison in "Faust," dramatically represented under the name of "Faust and Marguerite," by a company headed by Lewis Morrison, one of the best heavy actors in America, a man physically and intellectually capable of assuming the role of Mephisto. Miss Celia Alsberg, a young Californian, will assume the beautiful part of Marguerite, which she is said to portray with rare simplicity, delicacy, and upon occasion with genuine fire.

The play is divided into four acts. The first discloses the meeting between Dr. Faust and Mephisto, the transformation of the former to youth and his meeting with Marguerite. The second reveals the jewel scene and the progress of Faust in his love-making. In the third act we see Marguerite after her betrayal, shunned and despised by all, Valentine's murder by Faust, and the comparative triumph of the fiend. The last act reveals Marguerite's death in prison, the remorse of Faust and the final discomfiture of Mephisto through the intervention of the spirit of Marguerite.

A Card from Page Jacobs.

ED. APPEAL.—The statement made by the APPEAL that I was a Democrat was not so. You denied it yesterday but the Democrats tell me that they consider me a Democrat unless I deny it over my signature as they say they don't believe the APPEAL. Now, I had rather resign my office than be mixed up with the Democratic party that is trying to knock out silver and close up the Mint. I'm no Democrat and don't you forget it.

Yours,

ISADOR JACOBS,

then expire. J. L. Wines, of Eureka, is prominently mentioned by his friends as a candidate.
